

PUBLIC INTEREST DISCLOSURE FORM

Explanatory notes:

- There is no prescribed, required form for a disclosure under the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2013 (Cth) (PID Act). nbn has provided this document only as guidance and assistance if you want to speak up about any potential wrongdoing or maladministration at nbn. - Capitalised terms are defined in the PID Glossary of Terms available on nbn's website <https://www.nbnco.com.au/corporate-information/about-nbn-co/policies/corporate-policies>.
- Not all disclosures of wrongdoing or maladministration will be disclosures under the PID Act. If you are unsure as to whether your complaint constitutes a public interest disclosure, please review the background information provided in the PID Information Sheet for Disclosers and Whistleblower Policy and/or contact a WPO in accordance with the list of WPOs set out in that policy.

- Please note that if you make a PID:
 - nbn will be required to handle your disclosure in accordance with the PID Act.
 - You will be subject to certain obligations under the PID Act, which are summarised below.
 - You will be afforded protections under the PID Act. Please review the background information provided in the PID Information Sheet for Disclosers for further information.
 - You may make a disclosure anonymously, though this may make it more difficult for nbn to investigate your disclosure and to protect you against reprisals.
 - You should not discuss the details of your disclosure with anyone who does not need to know. Discussions with these people will not be covered by the protections in the PID Act.
 - DO NOT investigate any matter yourself. Doing so may hinder or compromise a potential investigation.
- If you prefer not to submit your complaint directly to nbn, you may submit your complaint to KPMG FairCall in the ways set out in the nbn Whistleblower Policy i.e. online at www.faircall.kpmg.com.au. KPMG FairCall is an independently monitored, external service operated by KPMG Australia.
- Disclosures about suspected serious or systemic 'corrupt conduct' involving public officials may be referred to the National Anti-Corruption Commissioner by nbn's CEO, WPOs, WIOs or another nbn staff member that performs certain functions under the PID Act.
